

Thessaloniki, Greece

REPRESENTATIVE
OFFICE OF
ST. PETERSBURG
STATE UNIVERSITY

www.russianword.gr

OFFICIAL REPRESENTATIVE OFFICE OF SAINT PETERSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY IN GREECE

BASED AT THE CENTER OF RUSSIAN LANGUAGE AND CULTURE

RUSSIAN WORD

RUSSIANWORD.GR

The Representative Office of Saint Petersburg State University in Greece (Thessaloniki) began its activities in October 2019. Its main purpose is to strengthen international educational cooperation, promote the Russian language and culture, and showcase the academic, professional, and research opportunities offered by Saint Petersburg State University. The Representative Office also hosts student competitions and Russian-language certification exams, as well as lectures by prominent Russian scholars and cultural figures.

The Secretariat is open daily 16:30–21:30

russianwordgr@gmail.com

+30 2310. 220822

Eth. Aminis 9 & Tsimiski 131,
54621 Thessaloniki,
Greece

In the framework of promoting the Russian language and culture, the Representative Office of SPbU undertakes the following activities:

- Teaching the Russian language, as well as Russian history and culture.
- Introducing new technologies into the educational process.
- Facilitating the exchange of expertise between Russian and Greek philology specialists.
- Providing consulting, informational, and expert services to partner organizations.
- Developing online courses and preparing scholarly publications for print, including collections, research papers, monographs, and materials from congresses, conferences, round tables, symposia, and seminars.

Organizational Structure of Russian Word

- Secretariat
- Educational Department
- Russian Word Mediacenter
- Department of International Cooperation “EDU-RUSSIA-RW”
- Methodological Office of the Panhellenic Association of Teachers of Russian Language and Literature (ВАПРЯЛ)
- Certification Department
- Translation Department

